3. Incomplete Work:

When work is incomplete due to an excused absence, the student shall have at least two days for each day missed to make up the work. Otherwise the student shall be given a zero grade for any work, which would have normally been graded.

4. Final Grade:

The final grade for each course, semester long or year long, shall consider at least the following factors:

- daily and/or weekly assignments
- class participation
- special assignments
- other demonstrations of skill or ability
- end-of-course assessment

At the beginning of each course, the teacher shall provide the student with a clear description of how the final grade will be determined in that course in keeping with the factors listed above. These grading descriptions shall also be filed with the appropriate guidance counselor and the principal. They shall be made available to parents for review upon request.
