Here are our expectations for families and students to keep our learning community healthy during the pandemic.

Having HEART during COVID-19

Help everyone stay healthy. Keep your child home if they have fever, shortness of breath, cough, or flu-like symptoms. Everyone must wear a mask at all times. Our nurses will work with students and their families whose needs prevent them from wearing a face covering.

Alert our school nurses immediately if your child has COVID-19 or has been exposed to someone with COVID-19 by calling (802) 556-2243 & comply with the Vermont Department of Health contact tracing protocols.

Requirements: masks, hand washing and physical distancing.

Trust our nurses to make the right decisions for everyone's health. If they call, you must pick up your child within 30 minutes.

Welcome Back!
By Sean McMannon, Superintendent of Schools

Dear WSD Families,

I hope you are all well. Our teachers and staff are back for inservice this week, and while things feel and look very different this year, we are all very excited to welcome students back to our learning community on Tuesday, September 8th. I thank you for your patience and support during these uncertain times.

Governor Phil Scott, Secretary of Education Dan French, and Vermont State Epidemiologist Patsy Kelso have been making a strong case to reopen schools for full in-person learning, particularly at the grades K-5 level.

In late August, 16 school districts covering Addison, Chittenden, Franklin and Grand Isle Counties, the Champlain Valley Superintendents Association (CVSA), agreed to assess the hybrid learning model after four to six weeks of school. WSD will work closely with the CVSA, the Vermont Department of Health (VDH), and the Agency of Education (AOE) to determine whether to stick with the hybrid model, move toward more in-person instruction or transition to more remote instruction.

We will certainly be following our local and statewide COVID-19 data based on symptoms, cases and hospital readiness in order to make the safest and healthiest decisions for our students and staff. With the current low numbers of COVID-19 cases in our area, we believe transitioning to full in-person learning is possible. The Department of Health has shown expertise in responding to positive cases of COVID-19, helping to build confidence for our students and staff to return.

We will be using the first four to six weeks of school to learn the COVID-19 health expectations and procedures, our A/B pod routines, and assess social-emotional, literacy, math and other essential skills.

Following guidance from the AOE and VDH, our measured approach allows for schools to minimize risk and develop new routines. If our district is able to safely phase into a fully in-person learning environment, full remote learning through the Vermont Virtual Learning Cooperative (VTVLC) will still be offered for families who choose that option. So far, we have about 70 students across the K-12 continuum who have selected this option.

This planned phased approach will only be attainable if the spread of the virus can remain contained and the guidance from the AOE and the VDH does not change.

The criteria to phase-in more students to in-person instruction:
• Sufficient staffing levels
• No or low COVID-19 activity in our community
• The ability to maintain compliance with the guidance from VDH/AOE
• New routines must be efficient and adjusted to meet the needs of our students and staff

The WSD leadership team will work in close collaboration with the VDH, using their guidance based on a number of factors, including the level of community transmission and other indicators used to assess the status of COVID-19 in our area during every step of the phased-in planning process. All communications and school reopening plans can be found on our website: www.wsdvt.org/covid19/

Lastly, please continue to take care of yourself and everyone in Winooski by following social distancing precautions, wearing masks when you go out, wash and sanitize your hands frequently, contact your doctor if you are sick, and stay positive. We will get through this together and be stronger because of it.

Thank you for working with WSD to benefit our students!
School Board Update
By Alex Yin, Board of School Trustees

I loved watching super hero movies as a kid, thinking one day, I would be one too. Of course, I never developed any powers such as flying or super speed, so my days of becoming Superman or Spiderman were numbered. Yet my days of becoming a good neighbor were not numbered and I did the next best thing: I joined the Winooski School Board. When I ran for school board, I thought my life experiences had prepared me for this work. As a community, we are doing great things such as the capital project, while also being reflective and learning how to strengthen our soul to be more inclusive through our students’ and alumni’s lived experience and their research on creating an anti-racism community. It is refreshing to see them use their voice to challenge us to be better.

I was prepared to do the aforementioned work. Never did I imagine that I would be brought to my knees begging for mercy by a virus. I am trained as an engineer and educator and even though every problem has constraints, there is at least an optimal solution. As we think about reopening the Winooski schools for the fall, I find for the first time in my life a problem with no optimal solutions (from in-class to hybrid to remote instruction). I appreciate the community members who write to the school board asking for the school to go remote instruction. I appreciate the optimal solutions (from in-class to hybrid to remote instruction). I appreciate the community members who write to the school board asking for the school to go remote instruction while others want the schools to do 100% in-class instruction. The difficult part is that both sides cite the same reasons for their position. It seems like whatever is proposed is a lose-lose proposition especially when you consider that we must take care the well-being of our students, staff, and teachers. The issue of reopening schools is made worst when you consider the conditions are ever changing, which made an already challenging problem almost impossible to solve. The COVID-19 pandemic has either caused a sense of hopelessness or fear as we try to protect the people we love. No doubt, these emotions are true for me every time I visit my mother.

After working four-years with the Winooski School District Leadership Team, I trust that from a procedural standpoint they will make the best decision for the community. Being a Yin (see my last name), in situations like these, I am reminded to look at the Yang of things. What if we reexamine the issue of reopening of schools not from a position of fear and hopelessness, but from a position of compassion and empathy? In looking at our history, these are not novel approaches to the problem as Franklin D. Roosevelt reminded the country that there is “nothing to fear but fear itself” in his inaugural address as the United States was in the height of the Great Depression and John F. Kennedy challenged a nation with “Ask not what your country can do for you – ask what you can do for your country” for all to see the importance of civic action and public service.

In using a compassionate and empathetic lens, I realized that it was important to listen to recognize that we are living in scary times. I am reminded then that people have different fears and concerns from me and that is fine too. I also recognized that we all have special skills and strengths and some way we can all contribute in a fashion to get through these scary times. I have seen neighbors helping each other get groceries, donating to the food pantry, making masks, wearing masks, supporting local businesses, or placing teddy bears in windows to make walks more enjoyable for families. The hardest part about the pandemic is that in social distancing, which we should be doing, it created an environment that makes it feel like we have to fight this pandemic alone. That is the furthest from the truth as it is in these times we need to unite as a community. As individuals, we need to find our unique strengths, recognize our comfort levels in dealing with the pandemic, not be afraid to ask for help, and recognize we can contribute to this community in some fashion. There is a reason why heroes do not emerge in good times, but instead emerge in desperate ones. Let this be a time to let your inner hero shine. Through these acts we will see the soul of our community is beautiful.

To the Winooski students, I know you will step up to this challenge. I already saw the heroic acts by the Winooski Students for Anti-racism, as they stood together to share their experiences with the community. Your strength is why I have hope that we will not only survive this pandemic, but we will emerge as a better Winooski for all.

WSD Alumni Profile: Brianna Robare
Winooski School District prepares students to lead healthy, productive and successful lives. The paths our students take after graduating can be as different — and interesting — as our incredibly diverse students themselves. So, we created a place to celebrate the work WSD grads are doing in Winooski, in Vermont and around the world. If you know someone we can feature, please email Emily Hecker, ehecker@wsdvt.org.

What are you doing now?
After graduating from Winooski High School in 2013 I went on to pursue my Doctorate in Pharmacy from the University of Rhode Island in Kingston, Rhode Island. Upon graduation in 2019, I began working as a Pharmacist for Hannaford Food & Drug. I currently serve as a floating Pharmacist who travels around Vermont serving at various pharmacies from Rutland to Essex. This past year I also worked as a Girl’s Varsity Assistant Basketball Coach at WHS.

How did WSD prepare you for your current success?
While attending WHS, I had the ability to not only participate in sports, but also be involved in band, marching band, Life Smarts, Business Club, and many more. Growing up in Winooski allowed me to explore each of my interests which eventually led to the realization that I wanted to explore a career in the medical field. I was able to take classes that specifically led me toward pharmacy, and even if WSD didn’t offer those classes, it was always made possible through VTVLC, CCV, and UVM. Another way the WSD community helped shape me was by allowing you to join every group imaginable, from sports to band to theatre, so take advantage! Leaving Winooski and going to a state university for pharmacy school was terrifying at first, but due to my experiences in WSD I felt confidence and solace in reaching out, asking for help when necessary, and making friends!

Fondest memory of WSD?
A memory that I am attached to is winning the 2012-2013 Division 3 Basketball State Championship. That team felt just like family to me and to share something so special that no other women’s team had done at our school was remarkable.

Why do you heart WSD?
I truly see WSD as my home, and the community members as my family. I will always try my best in giving back to the community, whether that be coaching basketball or attending another band concert! Winooski has given me memories of my childhood, adolescence, now adulthood, and for that, I am so grateful.
Capital Project Updates
By Emily Hecker, Communications and Development Director

There is a lot going on at our school this month. As our district opens up for in-person learning, the ReArch construction team is continuing their incredible progress. In September they will be tackling underground utilities, finishing up sitework, putting up structural steel installations for the new additions, pouring concrete slab-on-grades, creating the foundation and concrete slab for the exterior maintenance building, and putting up masonry walls for the new gym! It’s going to be a constructive month!

Winooski School District Receives $57.8 Million Direct Loan Investment from Federal Program

The United States Department of Agriculture (USDA) is investing $57.8 million to build a new campus for the Winooski School District (WSD).

USDA Vermont State Director Anthony Linardos announced the project earlier today. “The new school and essential infrastructure repair will benefit the children, parents, and teachers of Winooski for generations to come, and we are extremely proud to be a part of it,” Linardos said.

Funds will be used to renovate the existing educational facility infrastructure to modern educational standards and expand to serve one of the fastest-growing student populations in the state of Vermont. Through its Community Facilities Direct Loan & Grant Program, USDA Rural Development will provide and secure funding for the initiative.

The Winooski School District team comprised of WSD Superintendent Sean McMannon, Finance Manager Nicole Mace, Owner Project Manager Tom Barden, as well as leaders at ReArch and TruexCullins, worked closely over a span of several months with USDA Rural Development VT/NH Community Programs Director Eric Law and the team from the USDA to complete the process to qualify for the financial support.

“This team of dedicated leaders spearheaded a collaborative approach to complete a complicated process and brought an incredible finance package that will bring significant long-term savings over the life of the loan to Winooski taxpayers and secures a safe, healthy and modern learning environment for Winooski students,” said McMannon.

WSD Finance Manager Nicole Mace reported that the district will be saving approximately $11 million over the life of the loan compared to initial calculations, due to the historically low interest rate they were able to secure through the USDA program. “These savings mean students will be in a building that will match the excellence of the learning that is taking place inside, while also keeping the cost of the project more affordable to Winooski residents,” said Mace.
Supporting Wellness During the Coronavirus Pandemic

Many, if not most, Americans are feeling deepened anxiety, loneliness, and uncertainty about the future, all of which takes a heavy toll on daily life and Vermonter are no exception.

To help alleviate the emotional impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic in our state, we would like to announce the launch of COVID Support VT.

This program offers brief crisis counseling through Vermont 2-1-1 beginning Fall of 2020, self-help tips, wellness resources, and a way to connect to existing mental health and community services, all of which promote resilience, empowerment and recovery. The services available through COVID Support VT are designed to help those suffering from the pandemic by connecting them to:

- resources for mental and emotional well-being,
- local and national helplines, most of which are available 24/7,
- accessible and easy-to-access education and helpful tips on coping with the effects of the pandemic, and
- connections to community organizations that provide crucial services.

COVID Support VT complements the mental health and community services that already exist throughout Vermont. This program is another resource to help ensure Vermonter are supported and can thrive during such unusual and trying times. Funding is provided through a grant from the Federal Emergency Management Agency (FEMA). Vermont Care Partners (VCP) is administering the crisis counseling grant under contract with the Vermont Department of Mental Health.

JFK Summer School

By Suzanne Skaffestad, 21C Director, and Allie Monahan, Special Educator

Winooski JFK elementary students have been learning about how to be back at school and be physically distant during both our virtual and in person summer school sessions. Students were excited to connect online or to see each other back at school. In both the virtual and in person sessions they have learned about social justice and community in addition to learning more about COVID-19 and physical distancing. In school, students looked forward to their daily freezer pops! Thank you to all the staff that made JFK Summer School possible.
21C Summer Program - Community Justice

Student Leadership to Continue into Fall 2020

By Heather Win

For four weeks this summer, a group of curious, community-minded middle and high school students participated in the Community Justice Student Leadership offering from 21C. The group met online twice a week with co-facilitators Mohamed Diop, Heather Win, and Stephanie Hackett, all WMHS teachers. Each meeting included a guest speaker who shared about their work in the community, answered questions, and helped students get a broader perspective on how they could be involved in bringing about racial justice and equity for all of Winooski's community members. The students and teachers would like to offer special thanks to our guests--Aden Haji and Susmita Mangar - Spectrum Youth & Family; Multicultural Youth Program; Ali Dieng - Burlington City Councilor; Indra Acharya - Winooski Students for Anti-Racism; Kayla Loving - Spectrum Youth & Family - Restorative Justice Coordinator; Kristine Lott - Mayor of Winooski; Margaret Bass - Winooski City Youth Interventionist and WSD Board Member; Patrick Brown - UVM Faculty/Community Activist, Beckett Pintair- Williston Youth Restorative Justice Board.

Through talking with these guests, students grappled with issues such as symbolic demonstrations vs. action-oriented systemic changes, criminal vs. restorative justice practices, and how to be an ally to marginalized groups. The core group of students plans to continue the program in the fall and is looking to add more members and take on action projects in conjunction with local community organizations. Each of the summer members received a certificate of honor for their honesty, curiosity, and commitment to doing whatever it takes to make Winooski a community where all are welcome and all can succeed. If you’re interested in joining this group in the fall, please reach out to Mohamed, Heather, Stephanie, or any of our committed summer members: Albina Rai, Aden Jelle, Logan Erwin, Rahmah Alchaderch, Moseka (Don) Kiputa, Gabriella Lothrop-Penn, Mohamed Jelle, Damian Stoddard, or Alexis Blend.

Sewing Her Way Through Uncertainty

In July Winooski Middle School student, Ivy Resmer, reached out to WMHS Co-Principal Kate with a question. She said that she had been making cloth face masks since the beginning of the pandemic, and had currently made over two-hundred. She wanted to know if Winooski schools had enough face masks to start the school year, because if not, Ivy wanted to chip in with her homemade creations.

The district had already ordered a large supply of cloth face masks but Co-Principal Kate said that it would be wonderful to have student-made masks that were designed for and made by students.

Ivy agreed, and figured that in the months leading up to school she could make a lot of masks for students and teachers.

Ivy's generosity sparked another great idea. What if the school offered a student-led workshop to teach students and community members how to make masks? Ivy found the experience empowering, trying to focus on a helpful task during tumultuous times, and she felt other students might feel the same way. At the time of this publication, a series of mask-making workshops is planned for the last week in August. Many thanks to Ivy and her mom, Cathy, for helping to keep our learning community safe during these uncertain times.

We asked Ivy a few questions about her mask-making project:

Where did you learn how to sew?
I learned how to sew a few years ago, but I didn't find it too interesting, and back then my mom had a very old, clunky, hard to use sewing machine, so I just couldn't get into it. I sewed a coaster or two before I lost interest.

Where did you get the idea to start creating masks?
I got the idea to start sewing masks from my mom, who, from the get go, was sewing masks for her coworkers at UVM using a youtube video for help. She taught me a few weeks later, and it stuck. A big game changer was the new sewing machine.

Did it help you pass the time while you were quarantined?
Yes. I spent hours and hours sewing masks. It gave me something useful to do that I knew was desperately needed.

How many masks have you made so far?
So far I have made 260 masks.

Wear a Mask or Face Covering in Winooski

Governor Phil Scott’s Statewide mask mandate began on Friday, August 1, 2020. The amendment requires all Vermonters to wear masks or cloth facial coverings any time it is not possible to maintain a physical distance of at least six feet with others from outside their household.

Those who are not required to use masks include those exercising outdoors, those under the age of 2, those with a medical or developmental condition that is complicated by a facial covering and those with difficulty breathing. Businesses and other entities may require customers to wear masks, including signage explaining mask requirements and denial of entry or service to those who decline to wear masks.

Downtown Winooski has created a “support Winooski businesses page” where you can find out how to help and support our business community: downtownwinooski.org/support-winooski-businesses-during-covid-19

Business owners can also access their Winooski Business Portal for an extensive list of resources for businesses: downtownwinooski.org/covid-19-winooski-business-portal

In response to the profound impacts of the COVID-19 pandemic on the Winooski business community, the City of Winooski has adapted the Winooski Small Business Loan (WSBL) Program to provide businesses with emergency loans to assist them in bridging this difficult time. The new Tier 4 COVID-19 Relief Loan through the Winooski Small Business Loan Program offers businesses a 0% interest rate for the first 24 months of the loan term through a City interest rate buy-down and defers the principal payments for the first four months of the loan. This proposed loan structure will allow businesses leeway while they remain under mandatory closure orders and is serviced by Opportunities Credit Union. Hello neighbors,

Winooski City Council is seeking public input regarding our efforts to invite unheard voices into the local government process. We are looking closely at two initiatives:

- All-resident voting: where local voting (not state or federal) could be expanded to every resident of Winooski regardless of citizenship status
- Equity and inclusion – where other government and community processes benefit from Winooski’s valuable diversity

The work and community outreach surrounding All-resident voting has been led by the City's Charter Commission. At our August 3rd Council meeting, the Charter Commission recommended that City Council should present this option to the current voters of Winooski on the November election ballot this year. If the City Council makes this decision, several public hearings will take place before November where voters can learn more and discuss. For details, please visit winooskivt.gov/charter.

Work to continue improvements through equity and inclusion moves forward. An important Equity Summit was held where City Council and staff met with the Winooski School District and a diverse representation of community leaders to engage on this topic. The most exciting outcome of the summit was the decision to pursue grant funding that would help us expand access to the decision-making process through different avenues, including the idea for community liaisons who would bridge existing cultural and multilingual barriers. An outcome report from the summit is available – to view this document, please email communications@winooskivt.gov. I have been grateful to have support from the Winooski School District Home School Liaisons in organizing several meetings with new American families to hear their thoughts on these topics. The need for interpretation can make it more difficult for these residents to engage in City Council meetings and other traditional outreach, so these meetings have helped us include these valued voices.

We received valuable feedback, and also heard concerns ranging from cost of living, housing, and community events. Other outreach opportunities will be happening in the coming weeks, including a direct survey going out to Winooski Housing Authority residents.

Your input is valuable and needed – we encourage everyone to attend our City Council, Charter Commission, and other public hearings regarding these topics. Sign up for our email news updates and public meeting warnings at winooskivt.gov and click ‘subscribe to our updates.’ Please feel free to reach out with any questions or comments directly. My email is klott@winooskivt.gov.

Housing Liaison Update

By Councilor Jim Duncan

I serve as the City Council Liaison to the Housing Commission, which is charged with helping Council and staff “ensure a mix of quality housing that maintains and enhances Winooski’s unique sense of place and supports the needs of the entire community”.

After a long break, the Commission reconvened for the first time since February to talk about its work plan for the coming year and issues of housing stability in our community.

Looking ahead at its work plan this year, the Housing Commission will focus on finalizing and launching the Housing Trust Fund, which will provide home improvement funds, housing construction funds, and down payment assistance for low to middle-income residents. As this work is finalized, the Commission will recommend possible funding sources, review applications and track outcomes of the trust fund.

The ongoing economic impacts of the pandemic have a significant connection to housing, as people may not be able to pay their rent or mortgages. Commission members think this is an issue to pay attention to as things change, so we know how big an impact this could be, and will be monitoring information on evictions, foreclosures and unemployment in the City to look for upcoming challenges. To support the last item, Community and Economic Development Officer Heather Carrington will be seeking external funds for a consultant to gather data to share with the Commission.

If you are having trouble paying your rent or mortgage, there are many supports available:

- financial assistance for mortgage payers: vhfa.org
- financial assistance for landlords and tenants: vsha.org
- application and legal assistance: vtlawhelp.org
- other resources: vermont211.org or dial 2-1-1

The Housing Commission meets on the 4th Monday each month and meetings are open to the public. Please get in touch if you have any input or questions on the work of the Commission! My email is jduncan@winooskivt.gov.

New Signage at Our Lady of Providence Brings Sparkle to Façade

There is a new sign on the block, and it boasts an additional moniker for a familiar neighbor. The new, polished look sits on a sign, identifying Our Lady of Providence. The contemporary token went up in early June on the two-story, brick façade structure. The words, “Residential Care Facility,” were added to the symbol to identify the West Spring Street's mission. “No one knew what (OLOP) was, since it just said, Our Lady of Providence,” said Facilities Director Chantel Berard. “The sign stands out, and now people know what the facility is.” The sign’s understated and tasteful design underscores the facility’s dedication to caring for the elderly. “The new sign brings subtle recognition to our identity and purpose,” said Executive Director Mary Belanger. In the past, the building served as a school and convent. Berard and Jack O’Brien, who retired recently, worked on the sign, Berard said, adding it took about 10 days to construct it, balancing their other duties at OLOP with crafting the item. The old sign was incorporated into the new one, Berard said, adding that plywood and 2 x 4s were some of the materials used to make the informational piece. The letters on the sign are gold and raised so that the words are noticeable.

The lettering matches the gold cross adjacent to the sign and is the result of a mixture of love, and tender care.

“The sign was made from scratch,” added Berard.

Winooski Mutual Aid: Fostering Solidarity through Reciprocity

By Gwennie Talbot

COVID is hard. As the summer passes by, we continue to collectively process this massive shift that has affected every corner of our lives. We're continuously realizing just what a moment in history this is and reckoning with the fact that the world after COVID will be all but unrecognizable. All the while, our community continues to struggle to get access to fresh food, childcare, or money to pay rent and bills, not to mention give hugs and kisses to our friends and family.

Of course, grief and hardship have always had a way of alchemizing beauty, connection, creation, and joy, and COVID has certainly been no exception. One particular movement that embodies all of the above - and that's experiencing a resurgence during this time - is Mutual Aid. The Wikipedia definition states, “mutual aid is a voluntary reciprocal exchange of resources and services for mutual benefit. Mutual aid projects are a form of political participation in which people take responsibility for caring for one another and changing political conditions.” In other words, mutual aid societies foster community safety and support in a way institutional structures aren’t able. They fill in the gaps and dismantle the bureaucratic barriers erected by existing structures. They are for everyone, by everyone.

Mutual aid’s history goes back centuries, but in the US, it’s been a crucial social support structure for Black communities since the late eighteenth century. Mutual aid societies provided healthcare and job training, promoted education, published newspapers, and so much more that the US and state governments failed to provide for Black communities. The most commonly known example of mutual aid is the Black Panther Party survival program that served free breakfasts to upwards of 20,000 kids in 19 cities every school day; their program was a huge inspiration for the USDA School Breakfast Program. Other mutual aid organizations have supported Latinx, LGBTQ, disabled, and houseless communities.

Now, as a result of COVID, Mutual Aid has landed in Winooski. The network is spearheaded by a small group of volunteer community members who come to this work with eclectic skills, backgrounds, and identities. We are WSD educators and parents, mental health workers, homecare providers, immigrant advocates, artists, students, and activists. So far we’ve delivered hundreds of pounds of groceries, collected over $2,000 in donations, and brought food and supplies to almost 100 people. This was all provided by the pure, unadulterated, no-questions-asked generosity of our community. And we’re just getting started! Winooski Mutual Aid’s magic is its ethos of reciprocity and zero-barrier policy. We operate on the fundamental belief that we are a community and that we are therefore responsible for each other. Furthermore, we believe that somebody who is in need in one way can also provide support in other ways. It’s not charity, it’s solidarity.

So check us out! Visit our brand new website, www.winooskimutualaid.org, where you can request support, find ways to help, donate, and find out more information about the work we’re doing. We are also excited to be collaborating with multiple organizations in Winooski and are always open to new ideas, so please don’t hesitate to reach out! Call or text us at (802) 234-8287 or email winooskimutualaid@gmail.com. Times like these are a beautiful reminder that we all need support, we all have something to offer, and that our community here in Winooski is our greatest asset.

North End Studios (NES) have been successfully moving forward during these challenging times through two basic activities...food and music!

NES has been offering a FREE concert series at North End Studios O’Brien Community Center on Wednesday evenings throughout the month of August and will extend these concerts throughout September. Bring a blanket or chair to sit on and a mask to wear and enjoy some free music outside. Food and beverage purchases are available. This FREE September Concert Series will include:

September News from the Winooski Partnership for Prevention
By Kate Nugent

The Winooski Partnership for Prevention (WPP) wishes a very happy welcome back to students, parents, Winooski School District staff and faculty!

ATT (Above the Influence), the WPP’s middle school youth prevention leaders’ program, is going to be a bit different this year, and we look forward to carrying out projects in a safe, physically distant, masks-on way that help keep each other healthier. Stay tuned for more information on our website, from our electronic newsletter, and from WSD. All are welcome!

This summer, the WPP launched a campaign to help parents help parents.

With many thanks to the community leaders who participated, we are able to share practical, local connections for parents navigating the pre-teen and teen years trying to keep their kids healthy and safe as they become independent young adults. 99% of addictions start before age 21—we can prevent addiction, together.

The WPP currently has openings on the Board of Trustees. We are especially looking for someone who works with children and youth in the medical field, and someone with accounting expertise. We have one youth board member opening, as well, open to a high school first year, sophomore, or junior. The Board plays an important role in this work, helping to make organizational management decisions that strengthen its capacity, help raise awareness of the value of the organization, and find new opportunities. Please contact us for more information.

School Linked Dental Program

As you know, I am the Dental Hygienist for the Winooski School District. My job is to make sure that each of our students has a dental “home” and has seen a dentist at least once during the school year. I also help coordinate our School Linked Dental Program with Vermont Dental Care.

My focus remains on making sure all of our students maintain good Dental Health; it has an overall effect on our General Health, they are related in every way. So during this time especially, it is important to maintain excellent dental health.

Please fill out your back to school information accurately, including month of last dental visit and current dentist. I will be following up with you in the Fall to verify information.

At this point we are still unsure about the status/logistics of our School Linked Program with Vermont Dental Care. I will have more information for you in the coming weeks.

All dental offices are now OPEN in some capacity at this time. If you or your child requires dental treatment, please call your dental office to set up an appointment. Keep Smiling!
