Congratulations Kari Bohlen!

Kari is JFK's UVM Outstanding Educator of the Year

Every year, the College of Education and Social Services (CESS) at the University of Vermont, together with Vermont supervisory unions and school districts, the Vermont Agency of Education, and the Vermont NEA, join to honor the accomplishments of our state's outstanding educators. This year, Kari Bohlen is the Outstanding Educator of the Year for JFK Elementary.

Nomination: "I know many people know that Kari is an engaging educator, a committed team member, and makes deep connections with her current students but also maintains them. She is an advocate for students and her colleagues and strives to make Winooski the best place for the entire community. Outside of school, Kari is a member of the Black Liberation Collective (formerly known as Black Lives Matter of Greater Burlington). She works very hard to make sure that every voice is heard and that she understands how she can be an advocate and ally. Kari is a Board Certified teacher which requires a great deal of time and learning outside of her professional development time."
